

I strongly oppose the proposal to introduce BPL technology to existing power lines. The technology as it exists has great potential to render amateur radio operations useless for long distance communications. Not only will my hobby be affected, but also we stand to lose a crucial national emergency communications asset that the amateur radio service provides. Please do not approve this measure in a form that adversely affects the amateur radio service! Thank you. Frank R. Hervatine W6FRH